Lanyards

Sublimation printed lanyards are a great solution that allows you to stand out from the crowd because you are getting a high quality product at a very affordable price. Sublimation technique allows you to print virtually any graphic motif FULL COLOUR. Thanks to this they are the best-selling model of the advertising lanyard.

Lanyards are made of polyester of a width of 10, 15, 20 or 25 mm, on which you can be applied any printing in the CMYK palette. Printing is undetectable under the finger and allows a very good and accurate reflection of the small details of tonal gradations, with photos included. It is a technique recommended for printing projects containing a large number of colours.

A standard lanyard is a metal snap hook for keys, you can, however, attach practically any kind of accessories to it.

Gift Cards

Loyalty or discount cards are the key elements of loyalty programmes with which the company establishes long-term relationships with clients. Cards can be honours for a specific group of customers, e.g. VIP. A satisfied customer using the card makes regular purchases and recommends products/services to their friends or family.

We can prepare the gift cards on paper or plastic.
